Q: We're thinking of buying a vacation house that may become our retirement home later on. What's involved in purchasing a second home? Should we plan to rent it out when we're not using it?

A: Life is full of changes, and I'm here to help you cope with them. If you have a question like these, let's talk it over. Whether the solution is as simple as pre-approval for new financing, or complex enough to require looking at some alternatives, I'll use all my resources to make your transition easier. Call me – and give us another opportunity to provide the level of service and comfort you've earned as a SunTrust Mortgage customer.

Vanilla ice cream with chocolate chips
